PRESS RELEASE

MK CREATIVE SKILLS INTEGRATION & DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP: TASTER SESSION

By

M & G Productions: Paving the way...

M & G Productions, a new voluntary Organisation in Milton Keynes, is hosting their first ever free Taster Session for the over 18's and above who have creative media skills in; Fashion/Graphic design, Hair/Make-up stylist, Artist, Singing, dancing, Writing, Acting, Pre//Post Production.

The Taster Session will focus on sharing of ideas and opinions by the participants and some specialists Consultants, on areas of their individual skills that are in need of improvement and how these can be promoted for employment purposes. The outcome will result in the generation of topics for the MK Creative Skills Integration and Development Workshop, which is to be held in July/August of this year.

This event will take place at the MKYMCA Conference Room, 1 North Sixth Street, MK9 2NR, Milton Keynes, United Kingdom. The date and time is on Saturday, the 23rd of May 2015, from 12:30 to 16:30.

M & G Productions is a new voluntary organisation, established in January 2015. We organize events that explore and promote inclusion, networking, and motivation of the marginalized and unemployed creative talents in the Milton Keynes community.

Our objective is to organize workshops, and events that will showcase the group projects or productions of our participants to Creative media Organisations that will attend the events. This will enable the participants pursue or create employable opportunities in their individual skills.
